

Friends,

Hopefully this weekend will be less complex concerning weather...

Sunday we'll celebrate Baptist Men's Day and my father, David Myers, will be the guest preacher. I hope you will be here. The men will make up the choir and sing a special song and Tom and Haley Oxentine will share a duet. Also, the Ladies Class will serve us breakfast at 9:15 – as last week's Sunday School Breakfast was postponed.

Now, Sunday is also Valentine's Day...

Sunday night we'll celebrate together with a Valentine's Dinner. Bring a tasty covered dish to share and join in the fellowship.

Now, on to more spiritual matters... So far we've raised nearly $500 for Haitian relief and we will continue to accept your gifts through this Sunday.

On Wednesday Lent begins and we will have an Ash Wednesday oriented service and devotional during Prayer Meeting. This tradition hasn't been embraced by many baptists, but it is really rich, and we've missed out through our insulation.

Beginning Wednesday I invite you to visit this online devotional: Journey with Jesus (linked below, or you can cut and paste.*) It is very well done and will richly bless you.
